FUSION PHYSICAL THERAPY OPENS SECOND LOCATION IN THE SPORTS CENTER AT CHELSEA PIERS

(New York, NY – November 17, 2015) – The Sports Center at Chelsea Piers is pleased to announce the opening of Fusion Physical Therapy and Sports Performance within the 150,000-square-foot health club. Occupying a previous studio space, Fusion provides rehabilitation and relief to athletes experiencing various ailments and injuries.

The new Chelsea Piers location is open Monday and Wednesday from 6:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m., Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. and Friday by appointment only. Extended hours will begin January 1, 2016. Fusion Physical Therapy participates in most insurance plans.

The Sports Center at Chelsea Piers is the second location for Fusion, adding to the Tribeca office, opened in 2002. Founder Carolyn Mazur started the company to provide clients a combination of manual rehabilitation and an efficient training program allowing them to return quickly to their sport or line of work.

Fusion Physical Therapy's staff is comprised of Doctors of Physical Therapy, Athletic Trainers and Sports Performance Specialists. The company also has close affiliations with some of the most respected Physicians in the New York City area. Fusion treats all musculoskeletal conditions, and welcomes athletes to seek treatment in the off-season for rehab purposes and to enhance their performance.

“We are excited to have Fusion Physical Therapy offer their services at the Sports Center at Chelsea Piers,” said Jared Deptula, General Manager of the Sports Center. “Many of our members, staff and coaches already visit the Tribeca location for their physical therapy needs. Having them within our walls will be beneficial to both their business and our athletes.”

About the Sports Center at Chelsea Piers

Touted by Men's Health magazine as “the best cure for the boring workout,” the Sports Center at Chelsea Piers is the premier sports and fitness center in the greater New York Metropolitan area.
